New Kron Collection Materials Added from the Stanly County Museum

More materials from the Stanly County Museum have now been digitized and posted online at DigitalNC. Most of the material that has been added in this batch comes from the Dr. Francis Joseph Kron Collection. There are a number of papers and letters concerning the many legal battles that the Kron family were involved in, mostly concerning rights to land and contesting wills. Later letters display Dr. Kron's frustrations with the unceasing attacks, in one declaring that North Carolina is a "vast lunatic asylum" for allowing these suits.

Portion of a letter written by Dr. Kron

Also included in this batch are a number of miscellaneous letters from the Kron family, including the former slaves of Elizabeth and Adele Kron who kept the surname Kron, and a variety of legal documents including birth certificates for some of the members of the Kron family who were born in Europe, and statements of allegiance to the United States.

New Donations, New Users

Message

Are there any plans to include Richmond County Schools, NC...namely Rockingham High School, Hamlet High School, Ellerbe High School and Rohanen High School? Thanks...

Message

Just found your site and have really enjoyed it so far. Just a couple of question. Why haven't all of the yearbooks for the many different high schools in North Carolina been loaded? Example: The only yearbook for Jasper High School, "which was located in Craven County", has only the 1939 yearbook.

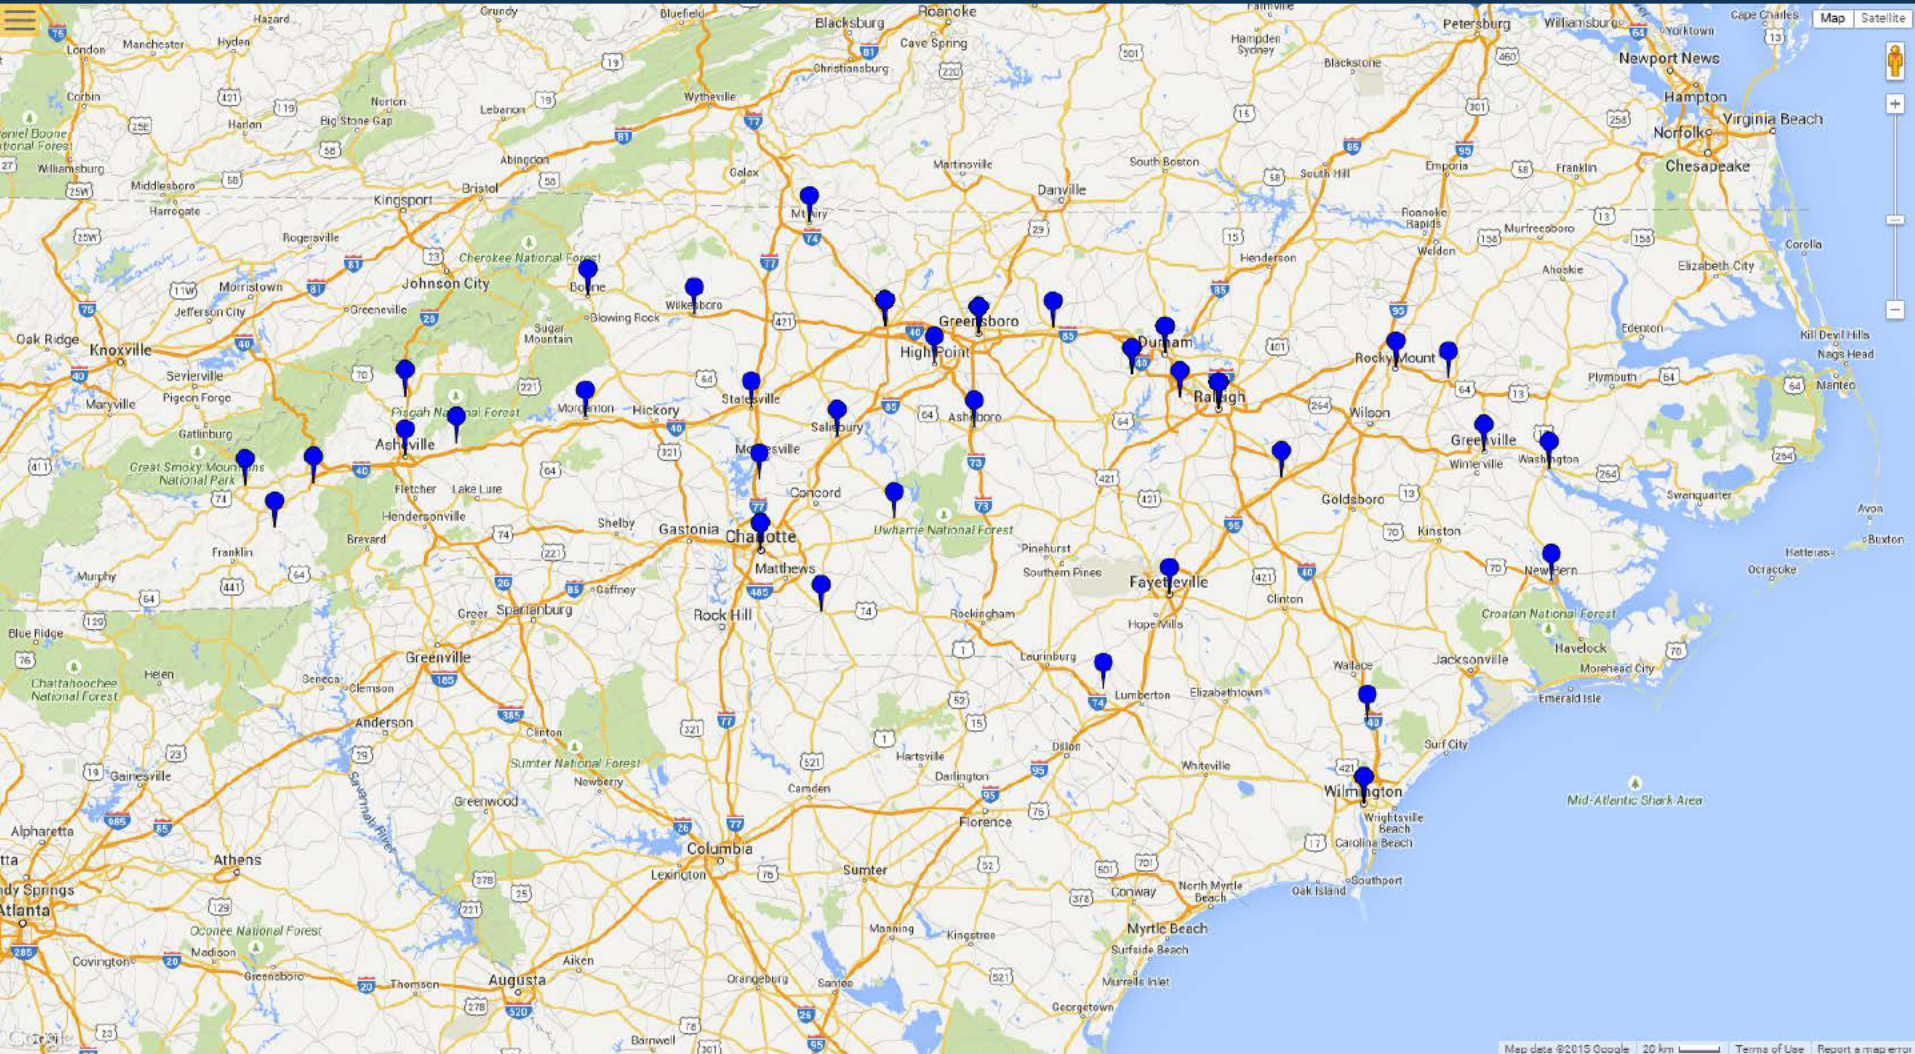

Also why haven't any yearbooks been loaded for Lenoir County?

Thanks for the site and looking forward to your answers.

Message

Your list of yearbooks for Charlotte Central High School indicates you are lacking the years 1953 and 1954. I have those in addition to 1955 and am willing to donate them if they can be useful. They are not pristine as the usual high school good wishes and remembrances are written on many pages. Please let me know if they can be used. Thank you.
